Community Justice Ayrshire Partners who provide support

Web links are included below, but further contact details including email address, phone number, and location of their building are included in the CJAP Directory Community Justice Directory - Community Justice Ayrshire

Skills Development Scotland	Provide Careers Information, Advice and Guidance Get in touch - Skills Development Scotland
East Ayrshire Council	Employability Team works with people and employers in East Ayrshire to provide support, job opportunities and training for all ages and abilities.
The North Ayrshire Justice Employability Mentor Programme	Provides one to one support and advocacy. They offer advice about local training and employability support services to encourage service users to build on their individual capacity, and routes into employment.
South Ayrshire Council	Thriving Communities provide employability support to residents of South Ayrshire through a Stage 1-5 Skills Pipeline.
Disclosure Scotland	An executive agency of the Scottish Government, helping employers make safer decisions when recruiting people Disclosure Scotland.
Apex Scotland	Provides support for individuals affected by the justice system, including employability and disclosure guidance Apex Scotland.
Ayrshire College	Is a Further Education institution in Scotland. The College has three large campuses in Ayr, Kilmarnock and Kilwinning. All campuses offer modern facilities with exciting learning and social spaces. Ayrshire College offers a wide range of courses Ayrshire College
DWP	Have Work Coaches based within HMP Kilmarnock as well as in the community.

Employability support, including volunteering opportunities are available via the third sector across Ayrshire

East Ayrshire Volunteer Centre	Can provide volunteering opportunities in East Ayrshire to build your confidence and experience. www.volunteerscotland.net
The Ayrshire Community Trust	A small charity based in Saltcoats offering services to individuals and the community and voluntary sector across North Ayrshire. www.tact.scot
Voluntary Action South Ayrshire	Help link people into volunteering opportunities in South Ayrshire. www.southayrshirelifeline.org/