Further links which may be useful

- Help finding a job with a conviction - mygov.scot
- Extra support to find a job with a conviction - mygov.scot
- 'Do I need to disclose my criminal record?' tool - Unlock
- Going Forward into Employment works with organisations that support people (see website for exemptions) who have been released from prison or served a community sentence within the last 5 years, to find employment within the Civil Service.
- Only a Pavement Away aim to connect forward thinking employers in the hospitality industry and charities working with people facing or experiencing homelessness, prison leavers and veterans, to help place them into long term, stable employment.
- Next Chapter Scotland have a range of information on their website about disclosure and PVG checks, finding and sustaining work.
- ENABLE Works provides employability support and assistance for individuals facing barriers to employment.