Training Sessions

MARAC AWARENESS -Multi Agency Risk Assessment Conference, 50 minutes;

This awareness session is for anyone wishing to learn more about MARAC and its processes. There will be information on the background of MARAC and its being part of public protections services in Ayrshire and Arran.

MARAC INFORMATION/DASHric Training; Domestic Abuse Stalking and Honour Based- Violence Risk Indicator Checklist; 2 and ½ hours

This training session is aimed at those front line staff who may find themselves in a position of assessing high risk through domestic abuse with an individual. There will be information on the background of MARAC and discussions around recognising individuals at high risk and making a referral to MARAC

The DASH is an assessment tool to inform referral to a MARAC. There will be an opportunity to use the DASH-ric using a case study as well as discussion around the assessment tool. Attendees will be sent some pre training reading along with the MST invite prior to the training session

MARAC Agency Representatives Training, 3 hours;

This workshop is suitable for those who are new to the role of MARAC agency representative, covering MARAC, DASH-ric and the responsibilities of an effective MARAC rep. The workshop aims to improve understanding of a multi-agency response to domestic abuse, the evaluated MARAC model, MARAC processes locally and the role of the MARAC Representative within this such as assessment of high risk, the referral criteria and the referral process for MARAC and formulating an action plan which focuses on risks and safe guarding victims. There will be discussion on the 10 principles for an effective MARAC and the benefits of implementing MARAC locally as well as highlighting the legislation which supports the lawful sharing of information. Some pre session reading will be sent out along with the MST link prior to the session.

Bookings

If you would like to know more or reserve a space on any of the courses, please email: aa.maractraining@aapct.scot.nhs.uk

Please note, all participants will be required to complete a post evaluation questionnaire. Slides will be made available after each session. Reading material will be sent out prior to DASH training session.

Cancellations/Non-Attendance

Where a participant is unable to attend, please give as much notice as possible as there is usually a waiting list for these learning sessions.

In the event that any session must be cancelled by the MARAC Co-ordination Team all participants will be notified via email (in the event of an emergency circumstance, this communication will be circulated no later than an hour before the scheduled event).

Learning Sessions Agreement

By applying for and attending a MARAC Awareness or DASH-ric training session you commit to:

- Actively participate, respecting the beliefs of other group members
 - Complete the post course evaluation and consider if the learning course has contributed to/expanded upon your own understandings and knowledge, and provide constructive criticism if you feel there are areas we could improve upon
 - Record how you expect the session to inform and support your future working practice, and consider any challenges you may face within your own role
- If you have any queries about the courses offered, please direct these to aa.maractraining@aapct.scot.nhs.uk

Thank you.
